SUBJECT Edwin Wilson

DAVID SCHOUMACHER: Bail has been set at $20 million for former CIA agent Edwin Wilson. Wilson was arrested today as he got off a plane at New York's Kennedy Airport. He'd been on the run for the past two years, after being indicted for illegally exporting explosives to Libya and helping train Libyan terrorists.

Wilson, a former Virginia resident, tried to enter the Dominican Republic this morning, but US marshals on the lookout for him convinced the Dominicans to instead put him on a plane for New York City.

A fellow ex-CIA man indicted with Wilson, Frank Terpil, remains at large. Terpil is from McLean.
